

FACE of the Month

"You can see it again, right? It's that trademark broad smile that typifies all ENTERTAINERS. Oh, but you must look deeper! This time there is so much more happening behind those mesmerising eyes and that welcoming expression. Relax! Expect the best. Nothing but goodness from your fun-loving Chameleon-ENTERTAINERS."

Howdy-dooddy! It's fabulous to meet you and to have this opportunity to introduce you to my world. I call it 'Planet CE', short for Chameleon-ENTERTAINER. We're located just to the right and a little south of the centre of the FACE Matrix galaxy (as you can see below). Ok, I'll dispense with the astral analogies and just get on with it. ☺

We Chameleon-ENTERTAINERS are mildly 'Driver' in our Pace, and we're slightly on the Open side when it comes to Relationship. Of course, like everyone else on this groovy little planet of ours, both the Pace and Relationship qualities of our communication style can vary depending on the situations we're in.

Chameleon-ENTERTAINERS are the mildest variety of ENTERTAINERS, in terms of the collective trademark style. Similar to the other three varieties of Chameleon FACES – Chameleon-FRIENDS, Chameleon-ANALYSTS and Chameleon-CONTROLLERS – and, as the prefix of our name suggests, our style is naturally camouflaged. We blend. It's the communication environment we're in that determines our style, not the other way 'round.

Yes, we are entirely capable at initiating and directing the flow of conversations. However, we prefer to make full use of our strengths; in particular, the fact that we are highly adept at shifting our communication styles and our behaviour with ease. Chameleon-ENTERTAINERS like to 'groove with the flow' of whatever situation we find ourselves in and, when the moment presents itself, we gladly take the lead.

By the way, our expert skill of being able to change our communication style is not something we use as a means of deceiving you or being sneaky. Not at all. Rather, it's a trait we come by innocently. You might say it's genetic.

Now, just in case you ever find yourself in conversation with one of the Chameleon FACES, but you're not sure which variety you're dealing with; here are a few characteristics that are relatively unique tell-tale signs to identify Chameleon-ENTERTAINERS.

- 1. Chameleon-ENTERTAINERS have a distinct air of self-assurance. Unfortunately, this is sometimes misread by others as egotism or even arrogance; but that's not the way it is! Think about it... If you were cooking up a personality and the recipe instructed you to blend strong confidence, with rock-solid self-belief; pour in a lavish dose of playfulness and then add a dash willingness to take risks (mostly calculated), which dish do you think you'd be serving up? That's right... Self-assurance!
- 2. Chameleon-Entertainers will usually challenge everything. We don't just blindly accept what is presented to us, even if it comes from supposed experts. The good thing about this trait of ours is that we often disguise our challenging under a thick veil of teasing and smiles; so it's not too much of an in-ya-face approach (pardon the pun).

This is especially the case in a work environment, which is part of the reason why Chameleon-ENTERTAINERS are so well suited to leadership roles. We are leaders, first and foremost; and we only follow someone else's lead if it makes good sense to do so.

- 3. Without a doubt, the most endearing and signifying quality of every single Chameleon-ENTERTAINER is our never-ending flow of raw enthusiasm. The blood type of ALL Chameleon-ENTERTAINERS is 'B-positive' (Do you get it?) Ok, so we don't all have the same blood type, but there is definitely a commonly shared energy force which courses through the veins of all brothers and sisters of the Chameleon-ENTERTAINER family. Not surprisingly, just about every single one of us is an excellent motivator. We are ideal for team environments.

So there you have it. A brief snapshot of what a Chameleon-ENTERTAINER looks like. Yes, we will still fly under your radar from time to time; but just pay attention to a couple of those traits I mentioned and you'll know who you're talking with.

Oh, one last thing... Chameleon-ENTERTAINERS are big sponges for praise. Like a cat to milk. You'll never hear us say, "Ok, that's enough praise for now." No way! Let it flow, baby!

WOOHOO!!!
